

A SUGGESTION OF ARBITRATION

Differences Among Baptists In the South—Virginia Delegates Appointed.

As the time for the annual session of the Southern Baptist Convention, which meets during the first week of next month in Savannah, draws near the discussion increases of the probable stand the body will take with reference to certain agitators out of harmony with the spirit of the denomination.

It has been suggested that a council of arbitration be appointed to consider and compare the interdenominational differences existing in the South. The suggestion is understood to have particular reference to the alienation in Texas and Arkansas. The Religious Herald takes up the matter this week, and declares that it does not feel very hopeful about the proposal. In so far as the differences are personal, the Herald says they are so intense and brethren on either side are so utterly skeptical concerning the characters of the leaders on the other side, and have expressed themselves so repeatedly on this matter, that it seems a well-nigh hopeless task to bring them together. But these differences are not merely personal; they are essentially doctrinal. The line of cleavage is in matters of doctrine.

There is prospect of a large attendance from Virginia at the convention. The State Mission Board has just announced the appointment of the following delegates: T. H. Athey, Wyrthe D. Anderson, E. E. Bomar, Richard C. Barlow, Alfred Clay, George Cooper, W. T. Derleux, James R. Doan, T. S. Dunaway, W. B. Daughtry, J. S. Dill, G. C. Duncan, A. E. Dickinson, H. Theodore Ellyson, J. T. Ellyson, R. E. Gaines, R. B. Garrett, C. S. Gardner, D. W. Goode, R. D. Garland, W. P. Hines, J. B. Hawthorne, J. B. Hudson, J. B. Lake, H. T. Louthan, J. L. Lawless, J. H. Mauck, J. W. Mitchell, I. M. Mercer, A. E. Owen, J. M. Picher, R. H. Pitt, H. R. Pollard, Sr., C. H. Ryland, G. M. Richter, Sr., W. W. Slisk, C. P. Stealey, W. R. L. Smith, J. M. Thomas, W. H. H. Trice, J. J. Taylor, H. W. Tribble, R. J.
